

ARCHITECTURAL DIGEST

THE INTERNATIONAL MAGAZINE OF DESIGN

DECEMBER 2008

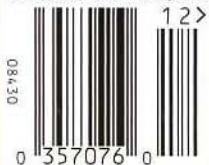

EXCLUSIVE: INSIDE PRIVATE HOMES

25 Designs for Children

At Home with Chef
Giada De Laurentiis

U.S. $5.99/FOREIGN $6.99

Fond of Fauna

Manhattan's Areaware is known for its selection of cutting-edge designs. The company carries items from Fauna, which range from large-scale decorative screens and gift wrap tape to clothing for children. Much of the collection features screen-printed designs of animals, as in the case of its pillows. Available in varying sizes, the organic cotton pillows, which start at $24 each, do double duty as cuddly playthings.

Areaware, www.areaware.com

Rock Star

With lines evoking classic Windsor furniture, the Child's Continuous Arm Chair Rocker, $1,175, from Thos. Moser (www.thosmoser.com; 800-862-1973) is handcrafted of cherry in the family-run company's Auburn, Maine, workshop.

Unbeatable

A bright red 1940s English chair, $2,400, at San Francisco's T. C. Donobedian (www.parisflea.1stdibs.com; 415-264-8433), is in the form of a drum, with a back that mirrors the seat and arm supports that resemble drumsticks.

Osborne & Little

The cottons Chalk Farm, left, and Waterloo are part of the Primrose Collection from Designers Guild at Osborne & Little (www.osborneandlittle.com; 212-751-3333).