shore footing

Consider this 8- by 10-foot hand-dyed wool rug a coastal comeback. To celebrate the opening of its new Manhattan showroom, Edward Fields—named for the company's founder, carpet-maker to the stars from the 1950s to the 1970s—is re-releasing several vintage designs ($80–$140 per square foot), including “The Deep,” shown above. Available to the trade. Call 212/310-0400.
